FLEA AND FLY CLASSIC, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5

Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

At this time of the year, practically every section of the country has a "Bowl" football game of some classification, but they have nothing on us here in Bay St. Louis, because we also have a Football Classic, second to none, which will have its thirty-second annual renewal on Sunday, afternoon, December 5th, at Stanislaus Stadium, when the Fleas and Flies face each other in a game which will be played for the benefit of the Brother Peter Memorial Christmas Tree Fund. . . . not so many years ago the Bay-Wave-Land Garden Club in cooperation with other civic organizations used to sponsor a city-wide out-door Christmas Tree contest, which resulted in making the whole town really beautiful for the holiday season, with hundreds of beautifully decorated and lighted trees all over town, but during the war this practice was curtailed, due to the shortage of electric power and materials, but now that things are again near normal this practice is to be renewed, it is a splendid idea. . . . attention, Ted Robin and members of the Chamber of Commerce, and to members of the Sideline Club: Oklahoma's coach was here during the week and looked over training facilities, which are the best in the country, yet they have selected Biloxi-Biloxi has something on the ball that we are lacking—time to check up—we had a national reputation as a training site for one of the Sugar Bowl teams. We should strive to regain it—means much to Bay St. Louis. . . . to our city officials: how can we expect to have a clean and healthy town when garbage is left standing on the sidewalks for days for stray dogs and alley cats to dig into and scatter all over the streets? . . . garbage put out on Friday morning was finally picked up on Saturday afternoon; again on Tuesday morning, garbage was put out for collection and on Thursday morning it was still there, throwing off an odor not very pleasing to smell. . . . the Mississippi State Tax Commission reported this week that 1948 collections through November set a new record high of $49,059,520 exceeding the same period of last year by more than two million dollars. . . . book lovers enjoyed the review by Harnett Kane of his latest work, "The Bride of Fortune" given on Wednesday of this week at the Episcopal Parish House, it is always a pleasure to hear this talented writer. . . . we along with many others lamented the fact that we had a few days of bad weather last week but, when we read the daily newspapers and see how much worse it is in many other sections of the country where floods are causing thousands to flee their homes, we realize that we have much to be thankful for. . . . when Mr. L. O. Crosby, industrialist of Picayune, died last week, not only that city but the entire state of Mississippi lost one of its number one citizens—a man who through sheer hard work had risen from a poor lad to a position of power in the financial world, respected and admired by many throughout the nation. . . . Saint Stanislaus defeated St. Johns of Shreveport, in the CYO bowl game in Alexandria, on Thanksgiving Day, by a score of 14 to 0, and was presented with a team trophy, while Joe David, captain of the Rockchaws, was given a trophy for being the player most helpful to his team. . . . congratulations to the team and to Joe.

Mrs. J. Wash Watts Addresses Womens Meeting At Baptist Church

Mrs. J. Wash Watts addressed a meeting of the Women of the Protestant Churches at the First Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Watts, former Missionary to Jerusalem, spoke on the great need of missionaries in this "most terrible moral crisis of the world." "This is a ministry of reconciliation," Mrs. Watts said, "for civilizations without God perish." "And," she continued, "it is woman's responsibility because it is personal." In comparing the question asked of Christ in 2 Corinthians 5:18-19 "What Can We Do?" it has become the question "What Can I Do?", she said. One of the admonitions given by Mrs. Watts was that we determine to maintain a friendly, fair, generous attitude toward ALL people with patience and encouragement. Another was that we give titles and offerings as never before; another teach children to accept a new role in a new era. First with new relationship, second new projects; third new fields. Mrs. Watts stressed the lack of Missionaries and the greater need of them than ever before and brought out the many professions, now open to men and women; being used in Missionary work compared with the earlier days when only ministers and doctors went to the missionary fields. She mentioned engineers, architects, welfare workers and several others who are now in the work.

May H. Edwards Named China Relief Chairman

Miss May H. Edwards has been named Hancock County chairman for China Relief and is issuing a call for funds for this cause. There will be no organization, no drive, no committees, but "one clear call" for donations to help those less fortunate than our selves. Miss Edwards hopes that the Rotary Club, the American Legion, The Knights of Columbus, the P. T. A., the Church Societies, the S. J. A. Mothers Club and all school children will come forward and help in this cause. The state office for this work has written that no quota has been given to any county but that if each person in Hancock County would give five cents (.05) what a nice sum that would make. Just think how proud all would feel if every child enrolled in school from the primary grades through high school were to contribute 5 cents. It can be done with little effort. Will you help do it? Miss Edwards is hopeful of a favorable reaction to this cause and is quite confident that the United States Unit of China Relief will have reason to appreciate what Hancock County did.

Lakeshore Garden Club Elects Officers At November Meeting

The Lakeshore Garden Club held their November meeting at the home of C. E. Becker, at which time the organization of the club was completed and the following officers were elected. The next meeting will be held on December 13th, at two thirty p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ruth Miller, and part of the program arranged for this meeting will be an exchange of plants among the members.

The Annual Classic of the Fleas and Flies will be played at Stanislaus Stadium on Sunday, December 5th. As in former years the proceeds from this game is for the benefit of the Brother Peter Memorial Christmas Tree Fund.

The game Sunday will bring youngsters from 50 to 105 pounds into action. Each team has been divided into four groups, thus allowing each group to play one quarter. As in previous years some of the kids look as if they need some extra help to carry their helmets, but seemingly they manage to find their way towards the goal lines.

Preparations have been going forward to make the half time program as interesting as any Varsity game. Each of the group—Fleas and Flies will have some fair rooters in a Queen and her court. At half time both of the courts are to meet in the middle of the field.

Make a date Sunday to see these mighty midgets in action and at the same time get that good feeling that you are helping a number of youngsters to make a Merry Christmas for some underprivileged child.

For the past several years the crowd of children seeking Christmas Cheer at the Brother Peter Memorial Christmas Tree has taxed the capacity of the St. Stanislaus Gymnasium.

Children come in from outlying parts of the County as well as those from the City of Bay St. Louis. The white children are usually served in the morning distribution and the colored children receive their gifts in the afternoon. The distribution date has not yet been fixed but will probably be Thursday, December 23rd.

The Flea and Fly Game is scheduled to start at 2 P. M. It will be handled by Officials from the Gulf-coast Officials Association. The price of admission will be $1.00 for adults. Students tickets will be 50 cents—including Federal Tax.

Harnett T. Kane Reviews "Bride Of Fortune"

Harnett T. Kane, author of seven "Best Sellers," delighted a group of listeners on Wednesday in his clever review of his book "Bride of Fortune" which is a story in fiction of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis and the Confederacy. The review was given at the Episcopal Parish House under the auspices of the Library Board.

He painted a word picture of whom he has chosen to call "Bride of Fortune" but whom he said might be called the "bride of misfortune."

He said that he found few to speak complimentary of Mrs. Davis and she was a grand woman," he said. He said she was critical because of her part in public affairs but he said, she was helping her husband. "She was the woman behind the man," Mr. Kane said.

"Her's was a life of tragedy, of disappointments, of heartaches, of defeats, but through it all she stood by her husband in all of his public life and made of him one of the great men of his time," the author said. "Read the book it is well written and for fiction, very factual. It is filled with information which has not been given to the public in the past. Don't miss reading it."

WE ARE TRULY THANKFUL

There have been millions of editorials written on thankfulness, and there will be millions more, but the subject proposes inexhaustible material. People have written about being thankful because we are warm and well fed, and because we live in a free country.

Now, in these days of inflation and the High Cost of Living, we may have to look a little farther for this material. But it is there. As long as we live in a country where we can believe as we wish, and act according to our beliefs, we will have reason to be thankful.

We have only to pick up a newspaper any day to see the results of the evil forces which are ravaging the world. One of the most prominent of these forces goes under the name of "Communism." Everywhere we turn, the word stares us in the face, and we read of the governments which try to prevent men from having any rights as humans, from believing in God or moral laws. But as long as men live by Christian principles, this force cannot take over the world, as its leaders claim it will. As long as men show the virtues of faith, hope and charity, the world will remain Christian and therefore Communism will be slowly pushed out and forgotten. We must always live with these three virtues in our hearts: Faith, that no matter what forces may try to tell us or otherwise, God will remain with those who love Him and trust in Him; hope that the world will recognize the true authority of God, and not fall into the "booby-traps" that endanger everyone today; charity that realizes the dangers to which everyone is subject, and shares with them the security and confidence that our firm belief in God's justice and mercy gives each and everyone of us.

Let's be thankful for an inspiring hope that Communism will be wiped out and not allowed to spread its cancerous octopus-like tentacles over Catholic America. And let us not forget to add on Thanksgiving and every other day a prayer for permanent peace, one where men love each other as brothers because they love God, the Father of all men.

—S. J. A. Sea Sprite, Nov. 23.

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaws defeated a fast team from St. John's of Shreveport, La., 14-0 in the CYO Bowl at Alexandria on Thanksgiving Day.

The Rocks were unable to score in the first half, with fumbles and penalties keeping them set back on their heels. In the final half the locals found themselves and half back R. Gutknecht produced the first marker on a 49 yard dash. Late in the fourth quarter, Charley Ladner scored his first touchdown of the season on a quarter back sneak after a sustained drive carried the ball to the St. John's 2 yard line.

Mickey Dolan accounted for both extra points. The Rockchaws were presented a beautiful team trophy and Captain Joe David received an individual trophy as the player contributing the most toward his team's victory.

Mississippi Forestry Commission With 2,334,000 Acres Of Land Under Control Has Best Years

The best fire prevention and control record in the history of the Mississippi Forestry Commission was witnessed this past fiscal year with 2,334,000 more acres of forested land under the protection of the state than in the preceding fiscal year. Albert A. Legett, state forester, announced.

During the period from July 1, 1949 to June 30, 1948 there were 38 counties comprising 8,453,000 acres of timbered land under protection and only 141,478 acres were damaged by 5,264 fires which represents 1.673 per cent of the total acreage, as compared with the preceding fiscal year when only 6,119,000 acres of timbered land in 28 counties were under protection and 1,083,541 acres or 3.09 per cent of the total were burned over. For Legett points out, he stresses that while there were less fires in the 1946-1947 period the average size of the fires was 40.9 acres which is much larger than the average fire for the past fiscal year which was 26.8 acres. He gives as the reason for this lower rate of burned acreage per fire, better trained personnel, more alert detection, swift dispatch of crews to the fire's location, and better fire suppression equipment.

Counties in which no fires were reported for the last fiscal year are, Leflore, Sunflower and Washington, all in the Delta section of the state. Only one fire was reported in Humphreys and Yazoo counties respectively where seven acres burned in Humphreys and nine in Yazoo. Jackson county having 308,000 protected acres of forest land reported the most extensive fire damage with 15,140 acres burned, or nearly five percent of the total acreage under protection. Next in line was Hancock county where 12,836 acres out of a total of 271,000 were burned or 4.736 percent. In Harrison county 10,997.9 acres were burned out of a total of 235,000 acres under protection which represents 4.679 percent.

During the 1946-1947 period 23,934 acres were burned in Jackson county, 22,561 in Harrison and 12,832 in Hancock. A great improvement is recorded for George, Greene and Lauderdale counties with George dropping from 16,202.5 acres burned in 1946-1947 to 7,322.6 acres in the last fiscal year. Greene county which reported 12,059.7 acres burned in the 1946-1947 period only had 6,107.7 acres burned in the 1947-1948 year. Lauderdale dropped from 19,884.7 acres burned in 1946-1947 to 5,088.5 in 1947-1948.

Calhoun reported a drop from 2894.5 in the earlier period to 2595.7 during the last fiscal annum; Chickasaw dropped from 4197 to 2619.6; Clarke which experienced a damage to 6503.5 acres in 1946-1947 reported only 4739.8 acre burned in 1947-1948. In Covington county 4351.5 acres were damaged by fire during the last fiscal year against 5848 acres for the preceding period. Grenada reported 3344 acres damaged against 4916 for the preceding year. Itawamba dropped from 5612 in 1946-1947 to 4950 acres in the last year. A large improvement is noted in Jasper county where fire damage dropped from 8724.4 acres in 1946-1947 to only 3999.9 this last year. Jefferson Davis county, another hot spot in 1946-1947 with 6216 acres damaged, reported only 3691.5 acres burned over during the last fiscal period.

Jones county dropped from 6689.3 acres burned over in the preceding period to 4447.4 during the last fiscal year. A large decrease in acreage burned is recorded for Kemper county where 6254.7 acres were burned in 1946-1947 against only 3768.5 for the last period. Newton county improved from 4547.7 acres damaged in the preceding year to 3050.4 acres during the last fiscal period. Damaged acres in Smith county were cut in half during the last fiscal year with only 4848.8 acres damaged against 9639.5 for the fiscal year. Tishomingo county reported a drop from 5825.5 acres burned in 1946-1947 to 2921 acres in 1947-1948.

WILDCATS DRILLED IN 78 OF STATE'S 82 COUNTIES—MORSE

With 28 "wildcats" drilling this week—more than at any one time in Mississippi history—State Gas and Oil Supervisor H. M. Morse quoted figures showing that the search for oil has led to all but four counties of the state at some time in "wildcatting" history. A second time in Tipton county, in northeast Mississippi, took the total of current tests to 28 and Morse said. However, there have been from 18 to 22 "wildcats" drilling almost every week of 1948.

Only counties in which no oil or drilling has been done are Tunica, in the far northwestern corner of the state, Coahoma and Quitman counties in the upper delta.

and Benton county, in the far north central area. Each of the other 78 counties of Mississippi's total of 82, has had at least one wildcat drilled, some of them many years ago but in most cases during the recent activity.

No complete tabulation is available for 1948, Mr. Morse said, pointing out that such a list would be of little use how because with the present activity the picture changes from week to week; but he cited figures from the annual report of the Mississippi Scouts and Landmen's Association, to show that as of the first of this year, there were only six of the 78 counties that had but one prospect of changing in others before the first of the year, Mr. Morse said.

According to the tabulation, more wells had been drilled, to the first of this year, in Yazoo than in any other county; 477 wells of all kinds had been drilled there, counting field wells and wild cats.

Lincoln county rated second with 220 wells, of all kinds, and its total is sure to be far heavier by the end of the year as there are now more than 225 producing wells in the county's two oil fields, in addition to wildcats drilled this year and before.

Jasper county rates third in total wells drilled to the first of this year, with 187; Adams county was fourth with 177; Wayne was fifth with 158 and Hinds was sixth with 155—more than any county in the state with no successful drilling for oil. Rankin, with 126 wells, and Madison, with 63 ran next.

With wildcatting spread throughout the state, Mr. Morse said this year's total of "exploratory drilling" will exceed even the high of 1947; for instance of 18 permits issued by his office in the last two weeks, ten have been for wildcat tests. So far there have been 97 wildcats completed this year.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

Consumers of livestock products set the prices that the producer gets for his livestock. Prices are bid up by consumers competing with each other for meats.

Farm income from livestock totals more than 17 billion dollars, according to government reports. Many folks read these reports and say, "No wonder meat is so high. Livestock producers are 'holding up' consumers."

"These comments are based on misunderstanding and are not true. That 17 billion dollars is not profit—it is gross income.

All costs are at all-time high levels. When all the necessary expenses are paid, the livestock producer is lucky if he ends up with 15 to 20 percent profit.

Many expenses must come out of the gross income before any profit is made. There's the cost of breeding and feeding stock, hired labor, fertilizer, fencing and grazing crops and other feed.

Also, machinery and equipment must be paid for out of the gross income. Repairs and depreciation must be taken into consideration, as well as veterinary fees and medicine.

This does not mean that livestock farming is not a profitable enterprise when good management practices are followed. Many livestock producers in Mississippi are making money. But so are many other farm and business enterprises.

Gross income does not necessarily mean profits. So don't say that the livestock producers are "holding up" the consumer when you read these government reports of high gross income from livestock.

Farm people should be particularly interested in buying bonds following the record crop made this year.

The Treasury Department is putting forth a special effort to get more people to invest part of their income in Savings Bonds between November 11 and December 11.

No dollar quota has been set for this drive, but Mississippi people are asked to buy all the bonds they can afford.

Buy Savings Bonds to help your government in managing the national debt and to help yourself. Plan right now to start buying bonds regularly.

Take part in the Thanksgiving season by investing part of your bountiful harvest in a better Christian world through your church and allied services. Also, invest in your government through the Savings Bond plan.

Accidents caused 1,445 deaths during 1947. This is a startling figure compared with reduction in deaths from diseases that once were high on the list of killers.

The accident problem is two-fold. Death or either temporary or permanent disability can result from accidents.

Losses due to disability cannot be estimated. Disabilities are costly because of time lost from employment, doctor's, nurse's or hospital fees, and most important of all in suffering and inconvenience to the victim.

All citizens should work together to make people more safety-conscious, and to reduce the number of deaths from accidents as they have the number of deaths from contagious diseases.

A study of artificial breeding in many herds in Mississippi show that excellent results are being obtained where cow-owners are careful in reporting the time the cows are first seen in heat and the cows receive minerals and loose salt at all times. It is important that cows be bred during the latter half of heat if a high conception rate is to be obtained. Mineral deficiencies are known to not only be responsible for poor conception, but also, for lowered milk production and weak calves. Dairywomen are advised to feed a cattle mineral containing not more than two parts of calcium to one part phosphorus in the feed along with loose salt, and to also have this available to the animals in a box in the yard or pasture. Steamed bone meal mixed half and half with trace-mineral salt is an excellent mineral mixture, as bone meal is one of the best sources of calcium and phosphorus.

OUTDOORS SOUTH

By Mary Lund
 Jupiter Pluvius did his part for duck hunters the past week as he filled ponds and lagoons in Southern Mississippi. Word of these perfect waterfowl conditions must have been passed around the air lanes for the flights of geese and ducks that usually stop over to refueling along the Arkansas flats have flown straight to the coastal section of Louisiana and Mississippi this November.

The open season on migratory waterfowl will open in Mississippi at 12:00 noon on December 10th, 1948 and run until January 8th, 1949. Shooting hours for geese and ducks on the opening day will be 12:00 o'clock noon until one hour before sunset; shooting on other open season days will be one half hour before sunrise until one hour before sunset.

Only one wood or summer duck is included in the four duck bag limit. Eight ducks is the possession limit requirement, with only one wood duck included. The regulations on geese are a daily bag limit of four, including not more than two Canada geese or its sub-species or two white-fronted geese or one of each. Four geese, including not more than two Canadian geese or its sub-species or two white-fronted geese or one of each is the rule on possession limit.

Pat Close, United States Game Management Agent for Mississippi reminds hunters, "Migratory Game birds may not be taken with or by use of automobile, aircraft, sink-box (battery), motorboat, sailboat or any craft towed by motorboat or sailboat. Rifle, automatic-loading or hand operated repeating shotgun of more than three shell capacity in the magazine and chamber combined. Any metal plug or wooden filler must be incapable of removal without disassembling the gun."

Staggered seasons on squirrel and deer should be carefully watched as regulations differ in various counties of the state. The open season on squirrel will close on December 1 in the following counties: Claiborne, Copiah, Simpson, Jefferson, Adams, Franklin, Lincoln, Lawrence, Jeff Davis, Covington, Jones, Wayne, Wilkinson, Amite, Pike, Walthall, Morion, Lamar, Forrest, Perry, Greene, George, Stone, Pearl River, Hancock, Harrison and Jackson.

The squirrel season will re-open on December 1st and remain open until December 31st in the following counties: Madison, Leake, Neshoba, Kemper, Lauderdale, Newton, Scott, Rankin, Hinds, Smith, Jasper, Clark, Desoto, Marshall, Benton, Tippah, Alcorn, Tishomingo, Prentiss, Union, Lafayette, Tate, Tunica, Coahoma, Quitman, Panola, Pontotoc, Lee, Itawamba, Monroe, Chickasaw, Calhoun, Yalobusha, Tallahatchie, Sunflower, Bolivar, Washington, Leflore, Grenada, Carroll, Montgomery, Webster, Clay, Lowndes, Oktibeha, Choctaw, Noxubee, Winston, Attala, Holmes, Humphreys, Sharkey, Issaquena, Yazoo and Warren. The bag limit in all counties is 6 per day--12 in possession.

The regulations on deer are as follows: In Jefferson, Claiborne, Adams, Wilkinson and Warren south of Highway 80--November 20 to December 1, and December 20 to January 1. In Kemper and Noxubee counties--November 22-23 and November 25-26, and December 30-31. May be run with dogs. In Clarke county--December 27 to December 31. In Scott, Rankin, Leake, Madison counties--November 20 to November 25 and December 27 to December 31. In Holmes county--November 20 to November 26 and December 26 to January 1. In Perry, Marshall, Benton and Lafayette counties--November 20 to November 26 without dogs. In Quitman, Panola, Tallahatchie, Leflore, Sunflower, Yazoo, Humphreys, Bolivar, Grenada, Washington, Jackson, George, Greene, Wayne, Issaquena, Sharkey and Warren north of Highway 80--November 20 to November 26 and December 26 to January 1. The bag limit in all counties is one buck per year; does and fawns not to be molested, or taken. No deer with horns less than four inches shall be taken.

Dove gunners will have their second chance when the state-wide split season re-opens on December 16 and closes at sunset on January 4. Hunting hours for each dove day of the season will be 12:00 o'clock noon until sunset. Ten doves is the shooting bag limit, and one may not possess more than ten doves at one time.

Last week the boating of dozens of bay and bayou speckled trout converted Governor Fielding Wright into a permanent follower of Isaac Walton. Bass and crappies or "sacallat" were also in a striking mood in all of the brackish back waters of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Large "speckles" are being taken around the Mississippi Sound Islands on artificial plugs, and "Reds" are schooling up in the island shallows and around the reefs of the Gulf. The big question is--shall we fish or hunt this November and December.

COLONEL AND MRS. MORRIS DE PASS VISIT RELATIVES

Col. and Mrs. Morris DePass were in Bay St. Louis on Friday for a few hours greeting old friends and visiting Mrs. DePass' brother and sister-in-law Commander and Mrs. Charles Beyer of Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian.

Col. and Mrs. DePass stole a march on their friends and were quietly married last week on the West Coast upon his arrival from China. Mrs. DePass is the former Mrs. Ruth Beyer Francis. Colonel DePass was a member of Bay High Faculty, 1915-17.

He left Bay St. Louis to enter World War I and shortly following the Armistice was sent to China on troop duty. While on this assignment he became interested in the Chinese language and was detailed as a state department language student to Peking, where he studied for four years. In 1924 he was ordered back to China for special duty, which lasted for two years. Soon after Pearl Harbor the Colonel was sent back into Western China. For a time he was United States Military attaché in Chungking and from there was transferred to serve with American trained and equipped Chinese troops.

After V-J Day, Colonel DePass was assigned to duty with the U. S. Advisory group in China and in early 1947 was detailed to his present assignment in Peiping. He is in charge of a Chinese language school of the officers of the Army and Air Forces.

PETITION FOR PARDON

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
 COUNTY OF HANCOCK
 To His Excellency Fielding L. Wright,
 Governor of the State of Mississippi

 Pardon Board

We, the undersigned residents and citizens of Hancock County, Mississippi respectfully petition your Excellency to pardon Floyd Smith, who is now serving a sentence of two years for grand larceny (plead guilty). He was sentenced by the Circuit Court of Harrison County, Mississippi in June, 1918 and now confined in Camp 6, at Parchman, Mississippi. Floyd Smith is twenty-nine years old, married, and has four young children.

He was in company with some other young men, who took an automobile, and the leader of the young men was tried, convicted and sentenced to serve a term of five years. This is the first trouble this young man has ever been in, and has been a good moral citizen, and a good husband and father.

This young man's father, Ford Smith, is an old resident of the County, a good farmer and one of our best citizens.

We believe that this young man has been sufficiently punished for his offense and should be pardoned. He realized his wrong, and aided the State in prosecuting the one mainly responsible for the wrong doing. We feel satisfied he will never again participate in any wrong doing.

We respectfully urge his pardon so he may return home and care for his wife and children. (We believe justice has been satisfied.)

Respectfully submitted,
 LUCIEN M. GEX
 ED. P. ORTIE
 ROBERT GENIN
 PAT RUTHERFORD
 AND OTHERS.

Bygone Days

By UDELL FAYRE

The issue of January 16, 1897, carried the article announcing the marriage of Mr. Charles G. Moreau, then editor of the Sea Coast Echo, and Miss Angelina Piccaluga, and which article written by A. G. Osolnaca, associate editor is herewith reproduced.

"On Thursday evening at the St. Louis Cathedral, Miss Angelina Piccaluga, of New Orleans was married to Mr. Charles G. Moreau, of this city.

No sunbeam flicked the hidden blue at five o'clock that evening, no whisper of bird was heard; but could the happiness which filled the hearts of these young people have been reflected upon the heavens and exquisite light would have illuminated the world and song, sweeter than birds, would have thrilled the universe.

A burst of melody, an altar of God, impressive rituals, solemn vows and two hearts passed into the holy arch of wedlock, united by ties stronger than life or death.

Upon the announcement of the engagement some few weeks ago their many friends became eager for the occasion and when the appointed hour arrived the vast cathedral was filled to its utmost capacity. Promptly at five o'clock to a selection from the beautiful Aida opera the wedding procession walked up the middle aisle to the altar, where the bride was met by the groom and his best man. The procession would not have been prettier. First were the twelve ushers, then Cupid and the angel, the maid of honor, followed by the bride and her father. The Angel was little Miss Eugenia Muller, prettily dressed in white satin which was covered with tulle and daintily trimmed with baby ribbon.

Cupid was little Arthur Bernard also dressed in white satin. These little people were ideal representatives of those two beings we are taught to revere. The maid of honor was Miss A. Lewis, this charming young lady was tastefully dressed in a beautiful white satin covered with organza. To say the bride looked queenly and sweet is like saying a rose kissed by the morning glow is queenly and sweet. These words do not express it. It is a sweetness which appeals to the soul and inspires a thousand-hued expression which can find no utterance in words. She was gownned in an exquisite vision of loveliness. Her white duchess satin dress was symbolical of the pure heart that beat beneath it. The trimmings was d'Allecon lace, an esteemed and costly heirloom of the family, and ornamented with pearls and diamond; in her hair was also a costly diamond sunburst. The veil was of white illusion with a spray of orange blossom. She held in her hand a very attractive bouquet of flowers, composed of white carnations, bridal roses and maidenhair fern. The groom's best man was Mr. A. Piccaluga, brother of the bride. Messrs. Mariononi, B. Melun, G. Gardebled, P. Caponi, Chas. Trundle, A. Mazzini, Dr. Trapani, J. Melun, H. Piccaluga, Jr., T. Fiol, M. Cyprian were the ushers, all in evening dress.

During the ceremony the caressing voice of the violin in the hands of Mr. C. Tosso, of the French opera troupe, lent a special delight to the occasion, and the enchanting Ave Maria of Gounod was splendidly rendered by Miss Pujol, the noted vocalist, while the registering was being done. The organ tuned the sublime Tanhauser to the beat of their happy hearts in coming out. Their many friends then repaired to the bride's residence, where they were more than pleasantly entertained by the hospitable host and hostess. The refreshments were in abundance.

They were escorted to the depot by the ushers and a number of their intimate friends. On their arrival here they were welcomed by their many friends. They are occupying their beautiful home on Carroll avenue and will be 'at home' to their friends after January, 21.

Mrs. Chas. G. Moreau possesses many accomplishments among which might be mentioned for her talent, for music. She has a charitable disposition and one of her greatest virtues is kindness. Of Mr. Moreau the writer can say nothing but good. Diligent, energetic and young there is no surmising what success fortune may have in store for him. At a youthful age he established this paper and was for a long while its sole manager. He is capable of great possibilities."

Forestry Fire Losses Held To Less Than $500,000.00 In Mississippi In 1947

Washington, D. C., (Special)—Fire losses were held to less than half a million dollars during 1947 on Mississippi forests under organized protection, according to a survey just released by American Forest Products Industries. The report points out that on the 52 per cent of Mississippi forest land, still not under organized protection, 1947 fire losses exceeded nine million dollars.

The report, based on latest U. S. Forest Service figures for the Nation, shows comparative effectiveness of forest protection in 47 timber producing states. In 1947, Mississippi had 9,027,000 acres of woodland without organized fire protection.

Commenting on the state's forest fire record, Chief Forester Charles A. Gillett of the industrial organization called for increased public support for adequate protection against fire.

"The Keep America Green program, active in 24 of the major timber producing states, is becoming an ever more potent factor in industries' drive to awaken public interest in forest fire prevention," Gillett declared.

"By pointing out what woods fires mean in terms of wages, raw materials, profits, taxes and recreational facilities, local Keep Green committees are putting an effective pocket-book punch into the forest fire prevention campaign," he continued.

The AFPI forester stressed the need for full public support of federal and state fire control agencies. In 1947 forest fires, 50 per cent of them preventable, burned over 23,225,032 acres of wooded land in continental United States, an area larger than Maine and nearly as large as Indiana.

WHEREAS, the timber resources of Mississippi are now at their height of importance in maintaining a balanced land-use policy and supplying raw materials to sustain our expanding industrial program; and

Veterans' News

There are a number of important deadline dates on GI Bill benefits which World War II veterans should keep in mind, Veterans' Administration officials point out.

GI education and training benefits have two deadlines, one to enter training and another to complete training. Education or training must be started within four years after discharge or by July 25, 1951, whichever is later.

As a general rule, education or training must be completed not later than July 25, 1956. The execution from the general rule are Veterans who enlisted or reenlisted before October 6, 1946. These men figure deadlines on GI Bill benefits from the date of their discharges and may start and complete their training later than other veterans.

Veterans may apply for guaranteed or insured GI loans for the use of buying or building homes, farms or business up until July 25, 1957.

Veterans who were discharged on or before July 25, 1947, can apply for readjustment allowances until two years after their date of discharge. However no readjustment allowances are payable after July 25, 1952.

There is no deadline on the time a veteran has to apply for medical care or hospitalization. He may do this any time during his life. The same holds true for filing a claim for disability compensation or pension.

Veterans studying under the GI Bill who want to transfer to another school at the end of the fall semester should notify the Veterans' Administration at least 30 days before they intend to make the change. To enroll at a new school, VA explained, the student-veteran needs a supplemental certificate of eligibility. He also needs a statement from his present school showing that his progress there is satisfactory.

A student-veteran may obtain a supplemental certificate of eligibility by applying to the VA regional office which has his file.

Veterans who have appointments for services authorized by the Veterans' Administration are urged to appear at the appointed time.

VA said veterans should make every effort to keep their medical or dental examinations at the time specified. These examinations are set on a regular schedule. When a veteran fails to appear, he wastes not only the time of VA personnel preparing to give the examination or treatment, but prevents them from re-scheduling some other veteran for that period.

Broken appointments also result in unnecessary delays in medical and dental care to all veterans of the surrounding area and reduces the number of veterans who can be served by VA.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—While living in Canada, I contracted by National Service Life Insurance to a permanent plan. Now I learn that because of Canadian currency controls, I cannot send enough money out of the country to cover my premiums. What can I do about this?

A—There have been a number of similar cases. You should contact the currency control office of the country in which you now reside, and if you cannot make a satisfactory arrangement, you should go to the nearest U. S. consulate and explain your problem.

Q—I am a World War II veteran and would like to know if my wife is entitled to VA hospitalization?

A—If she is an ex-service woman she will be entitled to hospitalization in her own right, but being the wife of a veteran will not of itself make her eligible for VA hospitalization.

Q—After my discharge from World War II, I surrendered my $10,000 National Service Life Insurance "converted policy" for the cash value. I have re-enlisted and want insurance again. Am I eligible?

A—Yes. Application for a new NSLI policy may be made while you are in active service.
